Drama Club, Bangabasi Morning College

Bengal is the land of culture and the performing arts. The Bangabasi Morning College, Drama Club was formed to keep alive the unique art of theatre and to convey its delight and force to youngsters. Drama club helps students discover their talents and interests, and make friends across the spectrum. This Club was formed with the objective to provide a platform for students to develop critical thinking and self-expression skills, and foster love for literature and art. It intends to help youngsters experience the energy of theatrical expressions and seeks to instil emotional intelligence, social abilities, inclusive attitude, tolerance and the capacity for team work. Activities like theatre seminars, workshops, performance of plays, etc. were conducted by the club during the previous year. The Drama club is an excellent platform to hone the inborn talents of students and to inculcate social awareness among the stakeholders.

Our College Drama Club is designed for our students so that they may develop a variety of skills, including:

1. Communication: Students can learn to work together and develop teamwork skills.
2. Creativity: Students can learn to be imaginative and develop their creativity.
3. Empathy: Students can learn to view the world from another person's perspective.
4. Self-confidence: Students can build their self-confidence and develop a positive work ethic.
5. Understanding of human behaviour: Students can develop a better understanding of
