Bangabasi Morning College hosted an extensive "Orientation Programme on Electoral Literacy" on February 27, 2023. This initiative, conducted under the guidance of the Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), saw the participation of 55 students. The program aimed to sensitise individuals about the importance of engaging in elections with integrity, understanding their rights and responsibilities as voters, and cultivating a deeper understanding of democratic principles. Through interactive sessions and informative discussions, attendees were empowered to become more informed and conscientious members of the electorate, thereby contributing to enhancing democratic processes within the community.

Convenor: Dr. Radharaman Bar

No. of Participants: 55

Objectives:

1. Promote Electoral Awareness: To educate participants about the significance of active and ethical participation in the electoral process.
2. Empower Informed Voting: To provide knowledge about voter rights and responsibilities, enabling students to make informed decisions during elections.
3. Foster Democratic Engagement: To deepen understanding of democratic principles and the role of individual voters in strengthening democratic governance.
4. Encourage Community Impact: To inspire students to act as ambassadors of electoral literacy, spreading awareness within their communities.

Outcomes:

1. Enhanced Voter Awareness: Participants gained a clearer understanding of their roles and responsibilities as voters, leading to more informed electoral participation.
2. Strengthened Democratic Values: Students developed a deeper appreciation for democratic principles and the importance of integrity in elections.
3. Active Civic Participation: Attendees were motivated to engage more actively in democratic processes, both as voters and community advocates.
4. Broader Community Outreach: The program's impact extended beyond the participants, as they shared insights and encouraged electoral literacy within their communities.
